

1     ABSTRACT

2             A system records a video program as well as metadata associated with the 3 video program. The system then receives updated metadata associated with the 4 video program. The previously recorded metadata is replaced with the updated 5 metadata.